

Col. J. K. Tully, On CIA Staff

Col. James Kivas Tully, 62, USA, retired, who has been with the Central Intelligence Agency here for the last two years, died yesterday at Mount Alto Hospital. He lived at 913 South Washington street, Alexandria, Va.

Col. Tully was born in St. Louis, Mo. He was graduated from the Military Academy in 1917 and served in World War I.

He joined the Pullman Co. in Evanston, Ill., in 1923, serving with them as assistant to the executive vice president. He was on leave from the company during World War II and while with CIA.

Col. Tully spent three years overseas and two years at the Pentagon during World War II. He was chief of staff for military railway service in Africa, Italy and France. He was a member of the Army Navy Club.

Survivors are his widow, Emily C.; a son, James, jr., Evanston; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas L. Anglin, 417 North Washington street, Alexandria, and six granddaughters.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Arlington Cemetery.